Chairman Brings Forum to the Rockdale to Reach Citizens Where They Are

CONYERS, Ga. – Rockdale County Chairman Oz Nesbitt, Sr. is introducing a new forum, taking place in local barbershops, to engage the community called Shop Talk. The first event will be held Saturday, March 10 at the Lab Barbershop, 2183 Salem Road SE, Conyers, 30013.

Shop Talk is a grass-roots approach to getting to know the community by interacting and engaging in an “open air” dialogue. The series will also be introducing elected officials to those who may not know who they are, what their roles are and their duties and responsibilities.

This first Shop Talk will introduce the following elected officials, who will also answer questions and concerns from a candid audience.

- DA Alisha Adams Johnson
- Chief Magistrate Judge Phinia Aten
- Sheriff Eric Levett
